There is a lovely abridged version of Goodnight Mister Tom read by Patrick Malahide (Penguin Books Limited) but recently I met some blind people and their sighted friends who told me how much they loved the full version, read by actor Christopher Saul (a member of the Royal Shakespeare Company).

The book Good Night Mr. Tom by Michelle Magorian, was a book I extremely enjoyed reading. When I first looked at the title, I wasn't too attracted to reading the book but once I caught the basic idea on what it was about on the inside, I was eager to read it.

Magorian <https://www.goodreads.com/book/show/9780141354804-Goodnight-Mr-Tom> was a very good book. I am learning about children being evacuated. This was great to read to help me with this. I loved the adventures of William and Mr Tom was an interesting character. I would recommend it to my friends who were learning about evacuee children or just for reading for fun.
