Reformed Academic: The Books of Scripture and Nature

The Books of Scripture and Nature The metaphor of the two books is well known among Reformed people, especially through the work of John Calvin. Article 2 of the Belgic Confession also makes use of it.

Book of Nature - Wikipedia

Alongside sacred Scripture, the Book of Nature also became a font of divine revelation and a source of knowledge of God. This also implied that for mankind, nature itself became a new authority concerning the divine. There now existed two ways of knowing God two texts, or two "books" sacred Scripture and the Book of Nature, and two separate authorities, which was disquieting to many.
